

Exhibit 1

Interpreter's Confidentiality Agreement

[This document is to be read to the client at the start of the first interpretive session the interpreter has with the client.]

I understand that I have been retained by Legal Aid of Western Missouri to provide accurate translation of this meeting/call so that Legal Aid can represent or advise the client. I agree to provide an accurate translation for the client and for the lawyer of everything that is said in this meeting/call between the client and the lawyer. I also agree to keep everything that is said in this meeting/call confidential and not to say anything about this meeting/call to anyone after the meeting has been completed.

Check the one of the two following blanks that apply:

_____ I do not know the client or the opposing party in this matter and to the best of my knowledge, I do not know anyone who is related to or acquainted with the client or the opposing party;

_____ The following is a list of people I know who are related to or acquainted with the client or the opposing party (including the opposing party, if applicable). My knowledge and relationship with these people will in no way affect the accuracy of my translation in this matter:

People related to or acquainted

With the Client or the Opposing Party

Interpreter's Relationship to Them

If, during my interpretation work, I determine that I know the client or anyone else who is involved in the matter at issue, I will immediately make that fact known to the client and the attorney.
